I played Wurm for 3 years, mining, woodcutting, digging and prospecting. I was in polish alliance on Deliverance, this server died out and I moved to NFI, but came back to old server, and then moved to Independence which is oldest server. Can't recommend this game, it is not free to play - it is free trial, even if you prem, you have no right to own property if you don't buy a deed, if you don't do that your house can be taken over by another user and your animals stolen, GMs do nothing about it, NFI launch was chaos with all the lag, error issues, stealing and griefing, like players deeding over someone who is building a highway or a house and removing the road 10 people worked on, call a GM and they do nothing, game didn't work correctly for over two weeks and we don't get any refunds, just sleep bonus month or two later. Wurm staff is rude, abusive and incompetent, you report to higher gm they do not reply for months. Devs do not listen to our suggestions, they lie and twist and they ban people who criticize them or say them to reform, never had issues with staff because i don't have tickets ever but I observed them on forums and in chats. When they nerfed imbues that let you get stuff at better ql I started to think about quitting, spend 1 gold ($100) to get my tools imbued and they are now useless.

GM staff is rude and evil to players, they kill discussion they don't like, there is literally rule that it is illegal to comment on what staff does! GM Enk comes and blow up people deeds "by mistake", I witnessed them picking up on a new player I came to get horses from her and saw the situation, she was trying to move the road messed it up, and instead helping her GM berated her like a dog and said they will ban her if she not fixes it at once, I was like WTF there is another road 20 tiles away, we later become friends, it turned out she has autism. I didnt plan to coment cuz I don't go in the dramas but now my buddy told me she got permbanned and shown me why and it pissed me off, WTF is wrong with you, picking on someone disabled and new to the game, you get money from them you respect them. Retrograde is a giant jerk, they do no pay developers and gms for their work too, this is mabe why they're so mean.

Sorry for my english - not my native language Don't play that game you will get your nerves broken by nerfs and abuse and spend lotsa money and they can ban without a reason, many people write that and it is truth.
